

RAOUL MOYNAN ILAW

Raul Ilaw is President of Ilaw Professional Associates, Inc. (IPA) in Marietta, Georgia. IPA is a consulting firm that assists attorneys, employees and employers with workplace hazards, recognition, mitigation efforts, and Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA) compliance.

Prior to his current role, Ilaw was a career U.S. Federal employee with extensive experience in occupational safety and health regulatory laws, enforcement, emergency management and training. His areas of responsibility included European federal installations and its employees and the training of employees in Bermuda, the Caribbean, the Panama Canal and the United States in workplace hazards and recognition.

Ilaw has also been deployed to more than twenty natural disasters and terrorist incidents through The Department of Homeland Security (DHS)/Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). He was the OSHA Manager assisting the FBI at the 1993 WTC Bombing and the FEMA Safety and Health Manager at Ground Zero after the 9/11 incident. He was awarded the Secretary of Labor's Exceptional Achievement Award for his OSHA assignment with the federal law enforcement agents in the investigation of the World Trade Center Bombing in 1993. He was also presented with the President's 1989 Public Service Recognition Award for his service to the New York and New Jersey communities.

After his retirement from OSHA, Ilaw relocated to Marietta, Georgia and became a founding member of the Asian American Chamber of Commerce of Georgia. He was elected First Vice President and is currently an active member of the Board of Directors.

Ilaw was selected as the Consumer Member of the Georgia Board of Chiropractic Examiners and served a term under Secretary of State Cathy Cox. In 1999, Governor Barnes nominated him to the Georgia Department of Labor's Workforce Investment Board, where he continues to serve as Member.

Ilaw has a B.S. in management and communications. He and his wife Barbara have six children and four grandchildren.

Ethnicity:
FILIPINO

Professional Title:
FOUNDER

